On May 31, 1963, sixty-seven young adults gathered on the stage for the last time as a group. During our last four years, we have had a variety of experiences that we will never forget. It was time to say good-bye but our memories will always remain with us.

An exciting week of fireworks started off with a march and sold by, a T-shirt and a song, and a class by. To top off all this there was a 1st place. They started off after school to hear members of their class play wind and later in the evening they would all help on their floats. The Junior class started off Monday evening festivities with an exciting drift about "Star Wars" all while the drift was a very successful bonfire built by the Junior members of the football team. All then gathered around the track to see the winners of the 1977 Homecoming King and Queen, Eric Smithson and Mary Ann. The Junior and Senior classes proved to be moving the hardest as the Junior class pulled in first place on their float and the Senior class with their first place winnow.

FRANK J. SMITH:
1st Place—"We'll Teach 'Em A Lesson!"

Friday Night, October 14, we found the Cassville Jets arriving in Potomac for an anticipated football game. Even though the final score showed the Chieftains behind 14-0 the scoreboard only showed who crossed the goal line ten times, not who gave it their best. "It's not who wins or loses that counts, it's how you play the game."

Too often personnel behind the scenes are not recognized—the people who keep the premises clean and in repair, the ones who prepare a tasty lunch for us every day, and the faithful drivers who transport us to and from school and to and from "away" activities. We do appreciate your services and are very grateful.

JOE PICKEL

In the summer of 1977 when Joe was swimming at Boice Creek, he dived off a bridge and broke his neck. Because of the quick thinking of Denice, Lori and Jeff Trickle, Wendy Pickel and Mike Reynolds, he survived. After spending a few months in Craig Institute in Colorado, he returned to Potosi. Joe and his electric wheelchair have become a familiar sight at PHS. He has shown us all what "real courage" is.

CHEERLEADERS

A black and white photograph of three cheerleaders in white uniforms performing a routine. They are in a line, with the central cheerleader slightly behind the other two. All three have their arms raised in a V-shape. The background is a plain, light-colored wall. The image is framed by a dark border.

VARSITY

[illegible]

Take one dozen girls. Add a neverending amount of enthusiasm, and pep. Combine smiles, a bubbly personality and sportsmanship and add to other "ingredients."

Put in an action-packed place such as a football field or a basketball court. As a topping, pour on all the spirit possible and the result will be a very spirited group of individuals who will provide entertainment for the high school sporting events.
